

ThinkTank: Searching for Clinical Trials - What Patients Want

11 April 2018 | Cliftons C-Suite, Level 3, 10 Spring St, Sydney

An interactive event using a design thinking framework to explore the issues of getting and providing public information about clinical trials in Australia, with a view to uncovering improvements that will it easier for people to find trials.

AGENDA

Time	Agenda Item	Led by:
9am	Registration Opens. Free Breakfast, Coffee/Tea available from 8am.
9.30	Introduction: Welcome & Why	Lisa Briggs (online)
	Introduction: Scope, and Objectives of meeting	Janelle Bowden
9.45	Introduction to Design Thinking Process	Sara Wiedenhaefer
10.00	Consumer panel – exploring the issues of patients and their families in looking for and getting into clinical trials.	Marilyn Nelson (online) Adam Johnston Adrian Eisler
10.35	ANZCTR – The framework, challenges and immediate future	Prof Lisa Askie
10.50-11.05	Morning tea break
11.10	Trial Info Providers Panel – The challenges and possibilities for providing information on trials	Lauren McNaughton, Eli Lilly Anita Van Der Meer, Medtronic Narelle Williams, ANZ Melanoma Trials Group Christie Allan, Cancer Council Victoria
11.35	Workshop – Empathy Exercise	Sara Wiedenhaefer
12pm	Group feedback – What is the problem?
12.20	Transcelerate: Clinical Trial Registry of the Future	Christine Crandall, GSK + T.J. Sharpe (US)
12.35-1.15	Lunch
1.20	ClinTrial Refer	Ros Ristuccio
1.30	Health Hack 2017 solution	Tim Churches
1.40	Workshop- Groups Ideate Solutions	Sara Wiedenhaefer
2.10	Group feedback – Best ideas
2.30-2.45	Afternoon tea break
2.50	Current context and the months ahead for AustralianClinicalTrials.gov.au	Samantha Miles, NHMRC
3.10	Group Discussion: Getting realistic – Pulling everything together Group Action agreements & Next Steps	Sara Wiedenhaefer
3.50	Closing remarks	Janelle Bowden
4	Close	